News Digest.

The steamship Bohemian, with foreign advices of the 15th inst., has arrived. The Central Italian States have voted in favor of annexation to Piedmont, and Piedmont has consented to cede Savoy to France. The whole Sardinian army is ordered to be in readiness by the 1st of April; this looks as if trouble was anticipated. It is reported that Bulls of excommunication against VICTOR EMANUEL are ready to be launched from Rome the moment the elections in Central Italy are decided. Advices from Morocco state that the Moors have determined to offer fierce resistance to any further invasion by Spain. The reign of terror continues in Naples, numerous arrests being made daily.

In the Assembly yesterday, the bills to redispose of the North-Western Land Grants, were indefinitely postponed. This action settles the matter for the present session.

MRS. ANNA BILANSKY, the murderess, was hung at St. Paul on Friday. An account of the execution will be found in another column.

The Democratic City Convention meets this morning to nominate candidates for City Officers.

Work to be Done.

If the Republicans of Milwaukee are, as we suppose, in earnest, in their effort to redeem the city from Democratic extravagance and misrule, they have work to do. It is not by resolutions, by Ward meetings, by talk, that the election is to be carried.—ACTION is the "winning card." It is, therefore, the duty of the Republican City Committee to meet early and make all necessary arrangements for the contest. Let them do so without delay. The victory is within our grasp, and it is our own fault if we do not seize it.

SECRECY OF THE CONFESSIONAL.—The Toronto Globe, in its court proceedings, gives an interesting case which came before Justice HILL of the Crown Court.

It seems that a man was robbed of a watch and the robber at the Confessional delivered the property to the priest. Information of this fact reaching the complainant, he summoned the Reverend gentleman as a witness. The Priest refused to answer the question, "Who did you receive that watch from?" on the ground that suspension for life from the Church would be the result of any violation of the secrecy of the Confessional.

The following is the concluding part of the report:

"His Lordship—I have already told you plainly I cannot enter into this question. All I can say is, you are bound to answer, 'From whom did you receive that watch?' On the ground I have stated to you, you are not asked to disclose anything a penitent may have said to you in the Confessional. That you are not asked to disclose: but you are asked to disclose from whom you received stolen property on the 25th of December last. Do you answer it, or do you not?

Witness—I really cannot, my lord.

His Lordship—Then I adjudge you to be guilty of contempt of Court, and order you to be committed to gaol. (To the officer of the Court.) Take him into custody.

The reverend witness was accordingly removed in custody of a policeman.

After hearing the other witnesses in the case, the jury returned a verdict of "guilty" against the prisoner, but recommended him to mercy. He was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, with hard labor."

The Slave Trade—Horrible Barbarities.

The correspondent of the New York Times, writing from St. Paul de Loando, says:

A short time since Her Majesty's ship Viper captured the brig Tavernier of New York, having a cargo of near six hundred negroes aboard. When first seen she was flying American colors. Capture being inevitable, she threw her papers overboard and hauled down her flag. The scene between decks was shocking. Stowed in a sitting posture, with their knees drawn up close to their breasts, were over five hundred human beings whose skins were black, mostly children and young persons, and some women. So close were they packed that they could not move, and could hardly breathe. In this suffocating condition they were struggling for life. The strong were killing the weak to make room for themselves, and that little more of God's air might be had. Disease was among them in many other forms, and especially ophthalmia. Sea sick, home sick, starving, crying for air and water, these poor wretches crowded this floating charnel-house.

But the slavers were merciful, for they helped the slaves to die. When one was sick nigh unto death they kindly assisted him or her overboard, before the soul had left the body. The quality of their mercy was not strained either, for they sometimes would substitute another death for drowning—the negro was knocked on the head with an axe. Disease breaking out, it was supposed to be contagious, and the sufferers were made away without any scruples of that troublesome thing called conscience. An idea of the mortality on board the Tavernier may be formed, when I state that after her capture by the Viper, upon her passage over to St. Helena, whither she was sent in charge of a prize crew, nearly one hundred of her negroes died. This was during a run of only about ten days' duration. I have not, above, taken an extreme case. The Tavernier's case is the rule and not the exception. Less of the horrible would be the exception and not the rule.

SUICIDE OF A YOUNG GIRL.—A girl aged 14 years, of Bohemian parents, living in the town of Kossuth, hung herself to a tree, about three weeks since. She had become displeased with the hard work she was subjected to on the farm, and had often requested permission of her parents to allow her to come to town to live. The parents as often refused, and she became depressed in spirits. One morning, about the 28th of last month, she left the house and was not heard from until about the 5th inst., when she was found a corpse, suspended by a rope from the limb of a tree, about 80 rods from the house.—Manitowoc Pilot.

MILWAUKEE POLITICS.—The Republicans of Milwaukee nominated a straight Republican ticket on Saturday, as follows: For Mayor, O. H. Waldo; Comptroller, Cicero Comstock; Treasurer, John H. Tesch; City Attorney, Halbert E. Haine; for Clerk of the Municipal Court, Theo. Weitstein. The ticket is a strong one, and if the people of Milwaukee consult their true interests it will be elected. We regard Mr. Waldo, nominee for Mayor, as one of the best men in the State.—State Journal.

THE UPPER MISSISSIPPI.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Young, made her first trip this season from St. Anthony, on Thursday last, carrying a large cargo of produce.—She starts up on Monday morning, at 10 o'clock, for Sauk Rapids and intermediate points.

Execution of Mrs. Bilansky.

The St. Paul papers contain full particulars of the execution of Mrs. ANNA BILANSKY, for the murder of her husband, March 12, 1859. On Friday, March 25, the day appointed for the execution, the preparations were completed amid great excitement in that city.

When the prisoner arrived upon the platform, she was led forward, and kneeled upon the drop—the clergy, jailor, and the Sisters and other ladies, in the same posture around her. About five minutes were then spent in reading prayers, by the clergy, in which she seemed to take a deep interest. Upon rising she was asked if she had anything to say. She spoke for a minute, perhaps. There was some repetition, but the following is very nearly what she said:

"I die without having had any mercy shown me, or justice. I die for the good of my soul, and not for murder. May you all profit by my death. Your courts of justice are not courts of justice—but I will yet get justice in Heaven. I am a guilty woman I know, but not of this murder, which was committed by another. I forgive everybody who did me wrong. I die a sacrifice to the law. I hope you all may be judged better than I have been, and by a more righteous judge. I die prepared to meet my God."

Mr. Hoffman then whispered a "good-bye" to her—when she showed some agitation, and said—"O, Mr. Hoffman, you promised to stand by me to the last." He assured her that he was not going to leave her.

Mr. Miller, the Deputy Sheriff, then approached her with the rope, when she exclaimed: "Dr. Miller, how can you stain your hands by putting that rope around my neck—the instrument of my death."

He assured her that duty compelled him to do it, and she made no resistance, and only said: "Do, for God's sake, put it on so that it will not suffocate me."

It became necessary in fixing the rope to lift the veil that was tied about her neck, when she said: "Mr. Hoffman, do leave that veil between the rope and my neck."

He explained in a word, the necessity of its being removed, when she said: "Fix it any way, so as not to suffocate me."

After it had been arranged Dr. Miller took the black cap from his pocket, and proceeded to put it on her head, when she said: "Be sure that my face is well covered."

All this took place in less time than it will take to read it, during which she said several times: 'God have mercy—God have mercy on my soul.' Her last words were: "Lord Jesus Christ receive my soul."

She was requested to take a step forward on the drop, and then everything being prepared, Dr. Miller made a motion to Sheriff Tullis, who pulled the fatal rope, and in an instant she fell. The fall was about four feet, and the machinery was so nicely adjusted that the noise was scarcely heard outside of the enclosure.

There was scarcely any movement in the body after it dropped; a slight convulsive motion and a heaving of the chest, was all that was observed.

The body was allowed to hang about twenty minutes, during which time prayers were read audibly by the clergy, who remained kneeling on the platform.

The physicians having examined the body several times, then stated to the sheriff that life was extinct, and she was cut down and placed in a plain black coffin that had been placed in front of the gallows during the whole period of the execution.

Her demeanor on the scaffold was excellent. She was not defiant or stoical; neither did she shed a tear. It is the opinion of many that she expected a pardon or reprieve to the last moment.

The Fox and Wisconsin Improvement Company—Statement of the President.

To the Hon. H. B. Munn, J. C. Neville and Ephraim W. Young, committee relative to the Fox and Wisconsin Improvement Company.

GENTLEMEN:—In reply to the interrogatories you have addressed to the company, I beg leave, with a view to avoid repetition, to include them all in one connected answer.

When the State of Wisconsin turned over to private enterprize, the improvement of the Fox and Wisconsin Rivers, it had exhausted 137,517 87-100 acres of the 268,303-69-100 acres of land, received from the general government. It had incurred a large amount of State indebtedness and a very considerable portion of the works remained unfinished, as appears by a report of Dec. 1, 1854.

The Association of individuals who undertook the work, and who preceded the present company, obtained from Congress an additional grant of land, amounting to 277,000 acres, for the Fox River. At the request of the present company, the State accepted that grant on condition that it be conveyed to trustees, to secure, first, the payment of the State indebtedness and the completion of the work; secondly, other indebtedness of the company, reserving a per centage for expenses.

As these lands were the lands of the U. S. Government, and would not be liable to taxation while in that condition, they were exempted from taxes until July, 1863, all of which will appear more fully by the act of July 6, 1853, and of October 3, 1856, to which you are respectfully referred.

From the passage of the act of 1856, to the commencement of the disasters of 1857 and 1858, no difficulty was experienced or apprehended by the company in the sale of its lands or bonds, and eastern capitalists were willing to invest their means in a work which promised to benefit them as well as the State. The revulsion of 1857, in prostrating commerce and destroying confidence, rendered it impossible for the company to sell lands or bonds. In conjunction with the trustees, and through their common agent, they advertised through all the Eastern States, in the public journals and in pamphlet form, a public auction of their lands, in order to raise money with which to pay State indebtedness, and complete the work. For the same purpose they employed agents in Germany, Holland, and England, as well as in this country, to negotiate their bonds. All these attempts to sell lands and negotiate bonds were unsuccessful. All the means placed in their hands by the United States government, in its donation of land, and by the State of Wisconsin in its authority to issue bonds and take tolls on commerce, were of little avail, when commerce had nearly ceased, and there were no buyers of lands or bonds.

The directors and stockholders of this company, while sharing in the adversity of this State, did not lose their confidence in her ultimate prosperity, nor in the commerce which must pass through this route from the great lakes to the Mississippi river.

They therefore continued their work, and their payments on State indebtedness, by an advance to the company of their private resources and credit, trusting that the people of the State would reward them for their perseverance in this important work, and relying upon sec. 6 of the act of 1853, wherein "The State solemnly pledges its faith to confer by future legislation, all such powers as may be found necessary to enable said corporation to carry into full effect the fair and obvious intent and meaning of this act."

The company had on hand and unsold, December 1st, 1859, 440,268 33-100 acres of land, as will be seen from statement A hereto annexed, and a considerable portion of the lands sold since Oct. 3, 1856, have been in payment for work on the improvement.—The company have paid, of State indebtedness, since July, 1853, consisting of back money due contractors, warrants of Board of Public Works, bonds issued by the State, and interest on the same, $234,627 28. The present condition of the State indebtedness is as follows:

40 Improvement Fund certificates of $1,000 each, part due,	$40,000 00
44 twelve per cent scrips of $500 each, due in 1861,	22,000 00
108 twelve per cent scrips of $500 each, due in 1862,	54,000 00
Warrants past due,	763 95
Total of principal,	$116,763 95
Two years' interest due, at 12 per cent,	29,704 74
Total, June 1st, 1860,	$146,468 69

The work on the lower Fox river is completed so as to give four and a half feet depth of water in all ordinary seasons, and during the extraordinary drought of last summer, a small amount expended in tightening the dams, relieved the navigation from all difficulty except the Menasha channel.

The Company is now at work on this channel, and no further serious difficulty is apprehended there unless there should be a recurrence of a similar drouth. The new cut-stone lock and canal, constructed by Messrs. Conkey & Wesley, at Rapid Croche, will be ready for use this spring.

The lock at Depere, by a change of plan, sanctioned by the Governor, Dec. 1857, is to be lengthened, but can be used, with some repairs, for another year or two.

A depth of 3 1-2 feet of water has been twice given to the Upper Fox by dredging, in 1858 and in 1859, as will appear by the annexed affidavits:

By a change of plan, approved by the Governor in February, 1857, the lock and dam in the vicinity of Princeton have been dispensed with, and the bars improved by means of wing dams, piers and dredging; and a large amount of this kind of work has been done between Berlin and the Mechan river. It is proposed to put in several other wing dams, both above and below Berlin, against the recurrence of a season similar to that of last summer. A dam and lock have been partially built at Montello. A new lock has been built at Fort Winnebago, on the site of the one built by the State, and sunk five feet lower than the old lock, in order to give sufficient depth of water for navigation. It is now anticipated that a lock and dam of low lift may have to be constructed about four miles below Fort Winnebago, in consequence of the trouble experienced in keeping that part of the river open for navigation. The Company have two dredges, one of which has been built since 1856, and the other rebuilt from an old one, then on hand, both at a cost of $12,288 68. One is located at Portage, and is ordered to commence work there in enlarging the canal and preparing for the foundations of a draw bridge, at Wisconsin and DeWitt streets, which the Company have contracted with the city to build. The other dredge is located at Menasha, and has been tendered to the people at Neenah, for a short time, to improve their channel. It is intended that both dredges shall be employed for the most part of the ensuing season on the Upper Fox.

The lock at the Wisconsin River, at Portage, was repaired last year, and with some additional repairs, will answer all the purposes of navigation the present year. With reference to the Wisconsin river, the Company have been guided in many respects by the opinions of men of experience, (such as Hercules Dousman, and other gentlemen familiar with that stream) that the navigation of the river by steamboat would make a channel, as in the case of the Upper Mississippi, and that generally money expended otherwise would be of no avail, although there may be some points where the stream will have to be contracted by means of wing dams, &c.

A steamboat made regular trips from Portage to Sauk in the latter part of last season, and several other steamboats ran out of the Upper Fox into the Wisconsin during the season. Statement annexed marked "B.," shows the expenditures for all the different kinds of work from October 3, 1856, to December 31, 1859. By reference to the same it will be seen that a much larger amount has been expended than was contemplated in the report of September 15, 1859. There is still about $75,000 worth of work to be done, making the cost about $300,000 instead of $200,000, as specified in the report of 1856. This has occurred in consequence of a better class of work being done than was contemplated, and of many unforseen contingencies which could not have been anticipated.

Statement annexed marked "C," shows the expenditures for State indebtedness, construction of work, operating improvements and expenses of land department. The Company have paid out for State indebtedness and construction, since Oct. 3, 1856, $181,539 00 more than they have received from sales of land and tolls.

The work still proposed to be done, is as follows:

Lengthening Lock at Depere	$10,000
Enlarging Canals on Lower Fox	2,000
Graveling Dams	1,000
Completing Lock and Dam at Montello	12,000
Rebuilding Lock at Portage	25,000
Building Draw Bridge at Portage	2,500
Enlarging Canal ...do	2,500
Wing Dam on Upper Fox..do	5,000
Dredging ....do....do	7,000
Engineering and contingencies	5,000
Total	$75,000

This work can all be completed in three years, if the demand for land shall revive as may reasonably be anticipated. I was appointed President of the Company in 1857.

The amount expended by the State prior to its cession of the work to the company, inclusive of State indebtedness, as I suppose, appears to have been	$435,855 38
The amount expended by the company for construction and navigation to Aug. 25, 1856, is reported at	504,806 06
The amount expended since October 3, 1856, which a detailed report is annexed, is	260,272 05
Total	$1,198,933 97
It has also been before stated that the company has paid on State indebtedness of principal and interest	$234,627 28

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN F. SEYMOUR,
Prest. of the Fox & Wis. Im. Co.

A SPLENDID SIGHT.—The Illinois Central Railroad, at a town called Mattoon, is crossed by the Terre Haute & Alton Railroad. Every day about two P. M., is seen at this point, one of the most splendid effects of the triumph of mind over space and matter, that can be witnessed anywhere. It is that of four trains coming from four different directions, arriving at this point at the same time to a second every day. They can be seen as they approach, for ten miles in each direction, the prairies there being a smooth, broad expanse, stretching away to the horizon without an inequality to obstruct the sight. As they arrive, they approach their cow-catchers within twelve feet of each other, as though exchanging salutations, when gracefully backing (as though bowing an adieu,) two of the trains go on the switches, while the other two scream away over the rail iron bound prairie. The trains left, then go on the main track again, and they are off and away. To our mind, a more superb triumph of man and machinery, cannot be exhibited anywhere than at Mattoon, on the occasions mentioned.

ARREST OF WM. C. WEBB, ON CHARGES OF FORGERY.—Assistant Sheriff McDougal arrived in the city this afternoon, having in custody Wm. C. Webb, editor of the Waushara County Argus. He is charged with having forged the names of two residents of Waushara Co., to orders on the State Treasury and drawn nearly $300 on them. He was arrested in his bed at his home in Waushara county, yesterday morning, and will be brought before Justice Braley to-morrow morning at which time it is expected that the witnesses against him will have arrived in the city.

It will be remembered that a similar charge was preferred against the prisoner, when he was in the Assembly, three years ago, but through the leniency of the prosecutor it was not acted upon.—Madison Patriot, 26th.

Arrival of the Bohemian.

PORTLAND, March 27—3 P. M.

The steamer Bohemian left Liverpool simultaneously with the City of Washington for New York, on the 15th inst., and arrived at Portland this morning at 9 o'clock, with 97 passengers and full cargo.

GREAT BRITAIN.—In the House of Lords, notice was received from the House of Commons that they had agreed to an address to the Crown on the Commercial Treaty with France.

The Australian ship Commodore Perry, for which fears were entertained, had reached Plymouth.

ITALY.—The whole Sardinian army is ordered to be upon foot by the 1st of April.

The Central Italian States have voted almost unanimously for annexation to Piedmont.

The municipalities of Milan had expressed confidence in the central policy of Victor Emmanuel, and offered him 3,000,000f.

Despatches to Count Cavour point out that the King accepts the annexation of Tuscany, as he would not depend on the support of France.

A despatch from Turin states that Sardinia has consented to cede Savoy and Nice to France.

The Pacific Railroad Committee.

WASHINGTON, March 27—3 P. M.

The special committee on the Pacific railroad proposition met yesterday, when Mr. Curtis, of Iowa, substituted a bill embodying the proposition adopted at a former meeting for the central route. Mr. Hindman, of Arkansas, entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the one-road proposition was adopted. This was rejected by a vote of seven to six—Curtis not voting, and Fenton and Smith being absent.

Railroad Land Grant.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, 27th—3 P. M.

The Iowa Legislature has conferred upon the Cedar Rapids & Iowa R. R., a land grant of 700,000 acres, recently reserved for the Iowa Central Co. This is the most valuable grant in the State, and ensures the speedy extension of that line to the Missouri river.

Suspected Murderer Arrested.

NEW YORK, March 27—3 P. M.

The Chinaman suspected of murder and piracy on board the sloop Spray, was arrested yesterday afternoon, on the Hackensack rail road bridge. When taken he had nearly $400 in gold and an overcoat said to have belonged to Capt. Leethe.

River Disaster.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 27—3 P. M.

The steamer Anglo Saxon, from Cincinnati, for Arkansas river, took fire in her hold, and was scuttled and sunk. Deck cargo saved. No lives lost. Boat insured for $8,000.

THE CITY.

A Solo on One Sin.

"Halle your name to the reverberate hills
And make the babbling gossip of the air cry out."
—TWELFTH NIGHT.

SOLOMON—who was a kind of primitive PRENTICE, always getting off good things—somewhere says: "In all labor there is profit, but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury." Penury were endurable if it were the only result of "talk," though perhaps the son of SIRACH had in his eye—moral, social and mental penury. The Egyptians had a good deal of SOLOMON'S "cuteness," for they had a god of silence called HARPOCRATES, who was represented with his fingers in his mouth. That is the only deity of mythological fame worthy of our imitation. If we were to keep our fingers in our mouths much trouble would be stayed. Not that the streams of nonsense and rhetorical froth are particularly damaging, not that the small talk of social life were better left out, but that a peculiar kind of talk called scandal—the manufacturing of arrows dipped in worse than Warilow poison—would be stopped. We men have a pet theory concerning the mischievous nature of woman's tongue. We might as well strangle the pet until we master the masculine member; for it is beyond all dispute that venom drops as easily from manly as from feminine mouths. Isn't there some of us who have fallen into the habit of saying something bad of every married woman and young girl whose independence or innocence makes them distinguishable from the mass. Pretty critics, truly, who think of nothing but the improprieties and are always studying how to fit them to virtue. Virtue did we say? see here—it's a painful fact, but nevertheless true, that we don't know the young creature, we haven't been introduced to her. She's a myth, on intimate terms only with our mothers and sisters, who, while we are alluding with significant nods to the actions of our friend's wife are no doubt subject to the same reflections from our other friends.

Well, you saw MRS. JONES out to the lecture with MR. SMITH! What of it. Does that small fact fill your mind and suggest dreadful consequences to the imprudent Mrs. JONES! Must you draw an unwarranted conclusion from it and then retail your own product to THOMAS and RICHARD and HENRY. If Providence should write anything on your wall it wouldn't be mene mene tekel, &c., but rather—mind your own business! If you are a young man, and have fallen into the habit of distorting vivacity, frankness, or the independence of a guileless nature into evidences of unchastity you can be cured only by judicious doses of raw hide administered by feminine hands, and we pray Heaven the dose will overtake you. If you are old enough to know better we'll forgive you—you may be one of those disgraceful old curses who make it a rule never to think of anything that is good as it would be an intrusion on time allotted to thinking of that which is evil. We don't want to have anything to do with you; you'll put a bad construction on this article before you get thro' with it.

It's pleasant, surely, to meet young men at evening parties—at balls, who get together and tell of little liberties taken with this and that lady, and which were unresented; and which are always set down as the fruits of their own discernment of character, whereas had the lady suspected what black motives underlaid the courteous exterior, a proper scorn would have been the only result.

It is to be regretted that our ladies must curtain themselves off from a proper intimacy with society, and cloister themselves within a dreadful reserve to escape the gossip and "talk" of Inquisitiveness or Lewdness, who stands on the corners and retails his lies or hob-nobs with Credulity over the shortcomings of his friends' friends. It's a very good plan—if you cannot school yourself to look upon your lady friends without stabbing them—to wear a muzzle of caution and choke syllables back into thoughts. We won't object to your thinking anything you please, but keep the poison within yourself and do not set it afloat upon the air to germinate like the Canada thistle, and produce thorns to wound the innocent.

THERE was an informal meeting of a few of the Teachers last evening, at the School Superintendent's Room, the object of which was to take some action in regard to the assembling of the State Teacher's Association in this city. WE were there, of course, much to the surprise of Mr. FORD, and having waited patiently for a denouement, and finding that things were rapidly approaching an adjournment, we left. A resolution was adopted setting forth the time of the meeting of the State Association in the first week in vacation, and Prof. LARKIN was instructed to assure the Secretary of the Society that ample provision would be made for all the school marms and masters who might visit the city.

A GOOD JOKE ON MR. JACOBS.—The friends of Mr. JACOBS—one of the numerous aspirants for the Democratic nomination for City Treasurer—doubtless thought they had accomplished a smart thing the other night in securing the adoption of a resolution by the Second Ward caucus, instructing the delegates to the City Convention to "support W. H. JACOBS for the office of Treasurer, and honest men for the other offices," intimating, of course, that there was no necessity of nominating an "honest" man for that office! We understand that Mr. JACOBS does not at all relish the compliment.

MUNICIPAL COURT, March 27th.—John Morrison and Timothy Drew, drunk and disorderly. Penalty and costs $4,37 or five days each in jail. Committed.

Patrick McGrath, drunk. Penalty and costs $2,12, or five days in jail.

John Parsons, (alias) disorderly. Penalty and costs $5,86. Paid.

Phillip Berlando, assault and battery. Discontinued on payment of costs.

John Thelan, obtaining mortgage and note by false pretences. Examination began. Defendant's counsel moved to quash complaint, and argued by District Attorney and Defendant's counsel; overruled as to note; testimony introduced and examination concluded, whereupon the Court discharged Defendant.

HORSE KILLED.—A valuable mare, belonging to Mr. J. THOMPSON, of the Town of Lake, was killed yesterday by a runaway team while standing in front of Mr. N. G. BISHOP'S grocery store, on East Water St. The shaft or pole of the runaway team was driven into the side of the animal, causing a rupture through which the bowels protruded.

The mare was led up the street in this condition, (followed by a crowd of morbid gazers) and when reaching the Walker House, fell down and died.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION meets this morning to make nominations for City officers. We are not posted as to the direction the wires may have been pulled, but think it likely the following will be the ticket:

For Mayor—WM. PITT LYNDE.
For Treasurer—GEORGE D. DOUSMAN.
For Comptroller—FERDINAND KUEHN.
For Attorney—JOSHUA LADUE.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THOSE HAVING BUILDINGS TO LET, or in want of tenements, should bear in mind that the prices for Advertising in the SENTINEL have been reduced, and that Advertisements of tenements "TO LET," or "WANTED," will be inserted in our special columns under those heads, ONCE for FIFTY CENTS, and THREE TIMES at the low price of ONE DOLLAR—thus affording persons who want tenants or tenements on the 1st of May, an easy and cheap mode of finding them without paying commissions or spending days in search of Houses. This is a reduction of ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. on our last year's rates for this class of Advertisements.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

MILWAUKEE FOLKS AT CHICAGO.—The following from the Chicago Democrat of yesterday may not be without local interest here:

POLICE COURT—Monday Morning.—The docket this morning was larger than it has been for a year past.

Albert H. Jones, John H. Gould, I. H. Seymour, Charles Dupee, George Wallace, George Abbott and Russell Wheeler, the parties arrested in the gambling den broken up on Saturday night, were brought up for examination. These names are all ficticious, except the latter, Wheeler. It appeared from the evidence of the officers who made the arrests, that after breaking down the doors and obtaining access to the apartment where the gambling was going on, they found the parties arrested all engaged in betting at faro.—The dealer, a man named Martin Curtiss, escaped, through a panel door, which had been arranged to guard against such a calamity as an arrest.

The place where the gambling was going on, was in a back room, over Hough's Saloon, on State street, near Monroe. The officers found the front door locked. Breaking it down, they went up stairs, burst open another door, and entered a small parlor, where the gamblers were. Three of them attempted to escape by a back stair-way, but were caught. When placed upon their examination, Russell Wheeler stated that he was a produce merchant of Milwaukee, and had come down to see Curtis, the dealer, on some business. He denied that he had been gambling. He was fined $50. Geo. Wallace, who is a "Tad," and is known as "Old Don," was also fined $50. He is a man of about 65 years of age. Jones, Gould and Dupee, who are professional gamblers, were fined $75 each. Seymour and Abbott gave special bail. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Hough, the keeper of the saloon, was arrested for keeping a gambling house, and gave special bail for examination.

THE FOLLOWING rich conversation, we are assured, actually took place at the Newhall during LOLA MONTES' recent visit to this city. The lady, it must be remembered, was once a Terpsichorean votary:

Mr. A. to his friend B., who is picking his teeth and looking over the register.—"So LOLA, the great lecturer and whilome dansoose, has arrived?"

Mr. B. with an authoritative air—"So I hear. I saw her once in New York, but it was during her career as a dan-sweese, (the latter word emphasised to show its proper meaning.)

Mr. C. here stepped up, and said—"Is that a fact; LOLA, the dan-swar, is here?"

"Exactly," returns A. "Probably the greatest terpsicorical woman of her time."

Exit the trio, each individual immensely pleased with himself.

CABINET SHOP.—Our old friend and fellow citizen, Mr. AUGUST FLERTZHEIM, has opened a cabinet shop on Oneida street, within a few doors of the bridge. His stock is large, his workmen skillful, and he himself an adept in the art. If any of our readers desire new furniture, or wish to have old furniture repaired, we can confidently recommend them to Mr. FLERTZHEIM.

WE INVITE THE ATTENTION of the trade to the catalogue sale, to-morrow morning, of JESSEL'S stock, which will take place at 10 o'clock, at his new quarters, 141 East Water street, next door south of Messrs. SEXTON BROS. & Co.'s store. He sells everything on the catalogue, without reservation.

Mr. G. W. CHUBBUCK, editor of the Central Wisconsin, published at Wausau, is in town and will visit our merchants to-day, to solicit advertisements for his paper. We recommend him to our business men as the editor of an enterprising and well circulated sheet.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure, yesterday, of a call from Mr. AUGUST KRUER, formerly Librarian of this State, and now editor of the National Demokrat, at Chicago. Mr. KRUER, although a Democrat, is exceedingly anxious to see "the Corruptionists" beaten in Milwaukee.

THE REPUBLICAN CITY CENTRAL COMMITTEE will meet at WINFIELD SMITH'S office this evening at 7 1-2 o'clock. The officers of the several Ward Clubs are requested to be present.

LATE NEWS FROM THE STRAITS.—We have news from the Straits to the 26th inst. For particulars see marine column.

W. H. SHERMAN, PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTIST, 231 MAIN STREET, ONE DOOR NORTH OF THE NEWHALL HOUSE.—Those wishing superior pictures are invited to call. Having been engaged in the Art nearly ever since its introduction into this country, Mr. S. professes to be able to execute the various styles of photographic pictures in a higher degree of artistic excellence than those dull, flat, insipid and worthless affairs so common at present. A complete assortment of cases and frames of every description on hand.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE EIGHTH WARD.—From the proceedings of a meeting in the Eighth Ward, published in the city papers this week, I learn that my name is mentioned as being a candidate for Councilor of said Ward. I am sorry this nomination was made without my consent and knowledge, and I deem it proper to declare that I am no candidate for Councilor, or any office whatever, my business leaving me no time to devote to public services.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1860.

The North-Western Land Grant.

We wish particularly to call attention to the Minority Report of the Assembly Committee on Railroads, which appeared in our Monday's issue. It seems that the morbid desire for railroad legislation is by no means satisfied by the unfortunate experiences of the last few years: and that there is yet a class who labor under the impression that, if we cannot borrow ourselves out of debt, we can possibly legislate ourselves out of the dilemma in which we are placed, respecting the Land Grant. Accordingly, it is now proposed to take away the Land Grant from the companies, to which it was ceded by a former Legislature, and to put it into the hands of new and irresponsible companies; apparently, to learn, by way of experiment, whether or not a better disposition can be made of it than already made.

If it was perfectly clear that this experiment could be tried without any breach of faith, or the violation of any solemn engagement the State may be already under in respect to this grant, we should not, perhaps, feel called upon to interpose an opinion; but should be willing to await quietly for developments, and approve or disapprove of the measure, as its fruits might seem to warrant. But to our judgment, the condition of things favorable to a series of experimental legislation upon this subject does not at present exist.

We have not space to array here, all the facts and circumstances upon which a proper consideration of this subject depends. Besides, the deliberate and well-ordered statement of them, contained in said minority report, so recently appearing in our columns, would make it a work of supererogation to do so. But we will assume the main facts—and about which there can be no dispute—to be the following:

1. In 1856 Congress made a grant of land, lying in this State, in aid of the construction of certain lines of railway in the State of Wisconsin.

2. The State was made the trustee of the grant. The function of erecting, or designating the Companies to build the roads, was assigned to the legislative branch, and the function of certifying to the completion of the same, or of any consecutive twenty miles thereof, precedent to the vesting of the lands in the Companies, was assigned to the Executive branch of the State government.

3. The State accepted the trust; and on the 11th of October, 1856, by act of the Legislature, disposed of a portion of the grant to the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, under the conditions and limitations prescribed by the Act of Congress.

4. The Company to whom the Grant was disposed, by the appropriate action of its Directors, accepted the same, and the vesting of the benefits thereof in the Company, as the result of the respective action of the Legislature and the Corporation, was a fait accompli.

We will not undertake to say—for it is a question less within the province of a journalist than the jurist—that the power of the Legislature over this Grant forever ceased upon this consummation; that having thus executed the trust, its office expired, never to be renewed. But this we have no hesitation in saying—that after the formal acceptance of the Grant by the Corporation, and until the occurrence of a forfeiture, by the act, or default of the Corporation, the Legislature of the State possesses no power over the Grant in the hands of the Company.

And this brings us to the conditions which the Legislature of 1856 coupled with the disposition of the Grant. These conditions, we learn from the Report, were—

1. That the main line of the Road, as indicated in the Act, should be completed before the 2d day of June, A. D., 1866.

2. The line from Madison to Portage City and also from Columbus to Portage City, should be completed by the last day of December, 1858.

It is conceded that the latter condition has not been complied with, although the period limited expired more than twelve months ago; and it is doubtless upon this pretext, that the power is claimed for the Legislature to resume the control of the grant, and to dispose of it to another company.

The attempt to exercise this power involves the consideration of two questions, to neither of which do we feel ourselves able to concede a superior importance over the other.—They are:

1. The legality.

2. The propriety of the exercise of the power, especially at this time.

Upon the first of these questions the Attorney General of the State has given his official opinion, in answer to a call made on him by the Legislature. We entertain a great respect for the professional opinion of the present Attorney General, and not less on account of his eminent character for candor, than of his sound judgment and undisputed legal ability. We do not doubt that he has weighed the several facts and circumstances which, in his judgment, bear upon the question at issue, and that the opinion he has expressed is the result of his sincere convictions.

We pass over the condition of this question ourselves, as unsuited to our sphere; but not without the protestation, that the reasons which have influenced the Attorney General in his decision, if they have all been brought to our notice, are far from being sufficient to satisfy our judgment of the correctness of his conclusions. If he is wrong, and the Legislature unwarrantably assumes the control of this grant, and diverts it, illegally, from the purposes to which it has been pledged, a pecuniary responsibility, to a fearful amount, it is claimed, will rest upon the State; on account of which we shall be at the mercy of the Eastern bond-holders for years to come. If, then, the legality of the exercise of this power is at least doubtful, our counsel would be against its exercise.

But the second question remains to be considered; and that is—even in the absence of all doubt as to the power of the Legislature to re-take the grant, would it be proper to do so, now, under all the circumstances of the case?

We have seen that the grant was made over to the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company in the autumn of 1856. That Company was then in the active prosecution of the enterprise of connecting the waters of Lake Michigan with the Mississippi, by a line of railway, which they had completed and had in operation for more than one-half the distance.

The portion of this line then uncompleted, by a happy coincidence, corresponded with the line assignated in the act of the Legislature conferring the grant upon that company; and the facility was thus afforded them of completing their direct line and complying with the conditions of the grant, pro tanto, at the same time. Those counsels had no peculiar claim to wisdom, which suggested the propriety of prosecuting the work upon the main line, and so entitling the company to a quota of the lands, upon the completion of every twenty consecutive miles, while they forwarded their main enterprise in an equal amount, instead of breaking new ground between Madison and Portage, and building there a line of road which could hardly be expected to pay running expenses when completed. They were the counsels of prudence, and are noticeable, if for nothing else, for their rarity in that connection.

In pursuance of this policy the company, we are informed, subsequently completed no less than sixty miles of road; on account of which they believed themselves entitled to upwards of 300,000 acres of the lands granted by Congress. We do not propose to enter into the questions that arose between the company and the Governor of the State, on application being made to that functionary for his certificate, as provided, in the act. We believed at the time, and we still entertain not the slightest doubt, that he acted upon the sincerest convictions of his judgment of the rights of the case, unbiased by any unworthy considerations whatever; and we are, therefore, neither prepared, nor disposed, to question the correctness of this action on his part. It is enough for our present purpose to say that the Governor declined to co-operate with the company in obtaining the lands, and that the company, in consequence of such action of the Governor, were unable to obtain them, and have not yet obtained them.

It is not to be supposed that important public works can be accomplished without adequate pecuniary means, by corporations any more than by individuals. The great financial depression under which the country is yet prostrated, occurred in the autumn of 1857, commencing within less than one year from the passage of the act of the legislature; and from thence hitherto, the difficulties in the way of procuring capital for the prosecution of public works, have amounted, in fact, to almost an inhibition. If the Company had received these lands, in parcels, at the times when they allege they became entitled to them, we are free to adopt their own reiterated conclusions, that their proceeds would no doubt have been sufficient to have constructed the roads from Madison, and from Columbus, to Portage City; but also to have sustained the credit of the Company, and to have enabled it to avoid the financial catastrophe which has resulted in so much obloquy to the Company and to the State.

Nevertheless, under all these discouragements, the work on the main line of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Road has been prosecuted to a completion, and the State at large is possessed of the inestimable advantage of a continuous line of railway for two hundred miles across its entire breadth—a public work whose value can never be counted in dollars and cents, and which it would not barter away again for all the immense sums that have been improvidently squandered in its construction.

And with what funds has this work been prosecuted, from Portage City to the Mississippi, during all these years of depression and pecuniary distress? The answer is, with funds wholly, or in great part derived from the hypothecation of those lands, which a former Legislature guaranteed to the Company, and specially authorized it to pledge for that purpose, and now it is proposed, after the money has been thus obtained from innocent and unsuspecting parties, and appropriated upon the line of the road, to wrest from those parties their security, and dispose of the lands to some other Company, leaving their bonds wholly worthless on their hands!

This is what we have to say upon the propriety of this measure—that if such legislation is now imperatively demanded by the exigencies of an inexorable policy, it would be more mete that it should come from the hands of a body now dispersed abroad, who should be reunited again for that purpose, and who should again succumb to the motives that were attributed to them in the initiatory step of our railroad legislation.

We think that the principles of equity and good faith which are recognized among individuals in their transactions with each other, are equally binding upon Governments and States; and we confess to an obtuseness which prevents our perceiving any fairness or good faith in depriving the Land Grant Mortgagees of the security which the State, through its Legislature, has recommended to them as a legitimate and safe investment.

FIRE AT GRAND HAVEN.—A fire occurred at Grand Haven on Thursday, the result of which is thus summed by the Clarion:

Frederick Bectal's building and stock, worth about $800; insured for $600 in the Manhattan Company.

W. S. Atwood, Bonds, Mortgages and Notes amounting to $30,000; an office library, books and business papers which cannot be easily estimated, including his list of notes.

Dr. McNett, books, office-fixtures, account books, notes, surgical instruments, altogether figuring up to several thousand dollars.

N. H. White left a bundle of notes at Mr. Atwood's office the day before, amounting to nearly $2,000. This was destroyed.

THE BURIAL OF STEVENS AND HAZLET.—The remains of Stevens and Hazelt were brought to Eaglewood, N. J., for interment. The execution took place on Friday. The remains were forwarded by express, and reached Rahway on Saturday, when they were at once taken to Eaglewood. The coffins were opened, but the bodies were not submitted to the care of an undertaker. The features were scarcely recognizable, and they were not shown either to the intimate friends of deceased or at the funeral. Attached to the button-hole of Stevens' coat, by red and blue ribbons, was a plain black India-rubber ring, but for whom it was intended his friends were not informed. His brother accompanied his remains from Charleston, and was joined at Eaglewood by his father and sister.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS IN MILWAUKEE.—The Republicans of the city of Milwaukee have nominated the following ticket: For Mayor, Otis H. Waldo; Comptroller, Cicero Comstock; Treasurer, John H. Tesch; City Attorney, H. E. Paine. This is said, by those who are acquainted with the nominees, to be an excellent ticket, composed of men of capacity and strict integrity. In the present condition of affairs in Milwaukee, it seems to us that such nominations must be quite acceptable to the people, and the election of the ticket is highly probable.—Janesville Gazette.

SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—When Salmon P. Chase, of Ohio, becomes a member of the U. S. Senate, on the fourth of March, 1851, seven of the members of that body will be natives of New Haven, Conn.—Messrs. Chase, Grimes, Chandler, Hale, Clark, Fessenden, and Wilson.

THE UTILITY OF HOARDING MONEY.—Four thousand five hundred dollars were lately stolen from a cellar in Montreal, where it had been kept between forty and fifty years. So that by not investing it, the owners have lost about nine thousand dollars interest, and now lose the principal in the bargain.

Republican Organization.

[For the Sentinel.]

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Allow me, through the columns of your paper, to urge upon the Republicans of Wisconsin the necessity of some more thorough and systematic organization for the coming campaign. It is well known that our majority in this State is not sufficiently large to warrant our remaining idle, while we have daily demonstration, that every appliance, which the studied cunning and prolific imagination of modern Democracy can suggest, will be brought to bear against us.

This necessary work of organization is already well begun by the formation of clubs in many towns and villages throughout the State; but do they not all lose much of their influence, and work under great disadvantages for want of more publicity?

Would it not be well for every club in each county to hand in to the leading Republican journals, of their respective counties, the title of their organization, regular times of meeting, names of officers, &c., the whole to occupy not more than a space of five lines, and to remain as standing matter during the campaign?

The advantages of such a course are obvious. It would have a tendency to induce the formation of Clubs in nearly every town in the State: would furnish the "State Central Committee" with the necessary information to enable them to open a correspondence with every Club (if advisable,) and thus work understandingly and profitably; it would give any who are willing to address meetings, either in English or German, a ready means of ascertaining where they are wanted; enable editors and others to obtain, at all times, reliable information from every part of the State, &c., &c.

These are by no means all the advantages, but are sufficient for the present purpose.—If in your opinion the plan is a desirable one, please state what the expense of such insertion would be, and sound the call for Club Cards. METHOD.

Oak Creek, March 26, 1860.

[We like the suggestion of our correspondent. As to the "expense," it would be trifling—not over two dollars for each Club during the campaign.—ED. SENTINEL.]

Another Lecture by Wendell Phillips—"Agitation Indispensable to Reform."

WENDELL PHILLIPS lectured on the above subject in the Cooper Institute, New York, on Wednesday evening. In anticipation of some physical demonstration of popular disapproval, a strong police force was present, but no disturbance occurred.

"Mr. Phillips began by saying, that while it was a proverb in Vienna that the Austrian only begs of God that he may be as well off to-morrow as he was yesterday, the Yankee never offers such a prayer. On the contrary, he is always striving to be better off, and although we claim that our institutions are certainly perfect, there is a wonderful reaching after reform among the masses at least. If there were any present who thought our institutions incapable of amendment, he would leave them with the old Road Commissioner of Massachusetts, in 1646, who was employed by the Legislature to lay out a roadway from Boston to Albany—some two hundred miles—and who proceeded as far as Newton, a village about ten miles west, and then returned and reported to the Legislature what he had done, adding his opinion that he did not believe a road would ever be needed further.

In society there were conservatives and progressives, the former like one Douglas described, never looked with satisfaction at the new moon out of respect to the old, while the other were never satisfied with what is, and seemed to think that mere running to and fro is improvement. Between the two there is of course a conflict; what method then should the reformers choose.—There were two principles at present omnipotent. One system was continental, the other partly English, partly American—Referring to the Press, the speaker said that nothing like intelligence existed there. He regarded the daily press as an element that ran with what was shallow. He instanced the Messrs. Harper, as publishers, who could afford to have the luxury of a conscience, and yet, when they published any work from Europe that possessed a principle of liberty, it was done apologetically. The Church, he believed to bend to the powers that were, and concluded, that, after all, it rested with the millions to effect the reforms which were desirable.

THE NAVY.—The home squadron, says the States, was never more efficient than at present. The entire force, including the Gulf squadron, number about fourteen steam and sailing vessels of all classes, with crews thoroughly skilled in the different branches of military and naval warfare. It has been decided by the authorities, in view of recent developments, to reinforce our ships in the Gulf of Mexico, in order that they may be prepared to meet any emergency that may present itself in that quarter. We give the following correct estimate of our naval strength in the Gulf:

Vessels	Tonnage.	Guns.	Men.	Horse-power
Savannah	1700	22	300	....
Preble	900	18	150	....
Saratoga	1100	20	250	....
Pocahontas	950	8	160	500
Brooklyn	2000	25	200	1050
Total	6650	96	1190	1550

It must be remembered that the Gulf squadron is only a section of the Home squadron. Under the command of Commodore McCluney, a detachment of marines were sent on board of the Brooklyn on Saturday, from the Brooklyn marine barracks. Another batch of workmen were discharged from the navy yard on Saturday last. There are not more than 250 men at work in the yard at present. There are four vessels of war soon expected at this port—two from Brazil, one from the coast of Africa, and the steamship Roanoke from Aspinwall, with the Japanese commissioners on board.

IN ONE OF THE MARKET HOUSES of Philadelphia is a genius of a butcher. Beneath his sleeves and apron he wears the costliest broadcloth—none of the inferior grades, but the finest production of French looms. His linen is as faultless as his exterior garments, while the glittering surface of his marble counters is no less striking than the glossiness of his hat and boots. In the centre of his shirt bosom sparkles a single diamond—a stone of six carats weight, and of the first water. Upon the little finger of his left hand glitters a circlet of diamonds, six in number, whose aggregate value is considerably more than that of the garniture of his shirt bosom. His complexion is a pure red and white—just that style of complexion which Parisian ladies produce by dainty commixture of carmine and bismuth. He is a man of fine physique, and has an avoirdupoise of about 200 pounds. His address is polished, and his manners courtly and suave. He commenced life without a dollar, and is now taxed for some $30,000 in real estate, yet is as polite and deferential to his customers as on the day he first embarked in the business of converting quarters of beef into chops and surloins. A benevolent lady of large fortune first noticed him, and placed at his disposal a fund upon which he has raised the superstructure of his present fortune. He is now rapidly advancing in wealth, and will probably retire upon the eighth of a million. And all through the influence of that specific against adversity—politeness.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS ARRANGEMENTS. The New York Associated Press have nearly completed their new arrangements for obtaining news from the steamships passing Cape Race, and before the middle of April the plan will be in full operation. It is expected that the steamship Vanderbilt, Capt. Lefevre, will be the first vessel to avail herself of these arrangements. She will sail from this port next Saturday, at four o'clock P. M., for Havre via Southampton, and returning, will leave the latter port April 18, bringing the result of the great fight between Heenan and Sayers, and delivering it to the news-boat of the Association off Cape Race, from which point it will be immediately telegraphed to the agents of the Press throughout the country.—N. Y. Tribune.

GEN. TOM. THUMB, who is only twenty-two years of age, has his yacht, his fast trotter, is without a wife, and is rich, is about to start again to make an exhibition of himself. He is tired of a quiet life, and longs to be a spectacle again to admiring crowds.

DEATH OF HON. L. C. LEVIN.—Hon. Lewis C. Levin died in Philadelphia on the 14th inst. He was an able lawyer, and an orator of more than ordinary eloquence. Mr. Levin was the founder of the "American" political organization.

Five Children Burned to Death.

A correspondent of the Warren Chronicle writes that on the night of the 14th inst the dwelling house of Humphrey Owens, in Goshen township, Mahoning Co., was burned to the ground, five of his children perishing in the conflagration. The family had retired at a very early hour, and were all sound asleep by a little after seven. About half-past seven Mr. Owens was awakened by the smoke filling his room, and springing from his bed, found the house wrapped in flames. He succeeded in getting his wife, with her infant ten days old, out of doors, and then commenced throwing water upon the stair-case, which had taken fire and was blazing furiously, hoping to preserve a way of escape for his children, who were sleeping above.

He succeeded in awakening his daughter, a young woman, with whom two of the younger children were sleeping; taking the youngest in her arms and arousing the other, and bidding him follow her, she hurried down the blazing stairway; as she passed the stairway, surrounded with flame, her father threw a bucket of water over her, and she was enabled to escape with the little boy in her arms, both seriously, but not dangerously burned. The older one, probably overcome with sleep, remained, and with four other brothers in another room, whom no efforts could arouse, were consumed with the building.

The fire is supposed to have originated from a bucket of ashes which one of the boys had set in the wood shed adjoining the west side of the building, when kinding the fire in the morning. Those who escaped saved nothing but their sleeping apparel. Mrs. Owens had to walk barefooted and unclad, save in her night dress, with her child in her arms, over the frozen ground, near a quarter of a mile to find shelter.

The children burned were all boys, the oldest about eleven years, the youngest about three.

A singular fatality has attended Mr. Owens' family. Twenty-one years ago he had a daughter nearly grown burned to death by her clothes taking fire, and about four years since a son, a young man, was killed by the kick of a horse. The two last mentioned were children of a former wife.

DURING THE PAST FOUR years Stewart's marble palace has been assessed at the rate of $400,000. For the same period, however, the bills of taxes upon this amount have increased from $5,532 to $7,168 64, showing an increased rate of taxation during that period.

THIS CELEBRATED WINE, OF THE above well-known brand, is unsurpassed for its rich boquet and general excellence.

"Thos. Hine & Co" Brandy Vintage, 1842. Connoisseurs of fine brandies have pronounced this to be fully equal, if not superior to any imported into the United States during the last twenty years.

THE NIGHT WIND.

He riseth from the sea; the jeweled waves
With hasty feet glide from his path before;
And midst low murmurs from the coral caves,
His shapeless garments float out to the shore.
Lifting his wings from out their golden grace,
He flies beneath the starlight and the dew,
Over the mountains and the plains of space,
Where lies the distance in her draperies blue.

With level front and coldness in his eyes,
He sweeps across the hills where nature stands,
And in mute scorning of her wild surprise,
He casts the blossoms from her clinging hands.
From off her forehead and her bosom bare,
He tears the jewels in his reckless mirth—
And all the gems that shine amidst her hair,
He scatters rudely o'er the eager earth.

Then turning from her he comes shouting down
Upon the trees, who stand erect with pride—
Tears off the branches of the maple brown,
And lays the proud oak on the green hillside,
The ash, with bare, white arms raised to the sky
In still imploring, he scorns all the more—
Bends down the cedars with exultant cry,
And bows to dust the grand old sycamore.

Then growing gentler as the night wears on,
He lingers longer by some cottage low—
Where lies a maiden, blushing as the dawn,
With dreams upon her eyes, unfolding slow,
He weaves within her sleep the rarest things—
The brightest promises she ever knew—
Until the fluttering of his restless wings,
Frights her from her slumber and her pillow too.

Then gathering up into his mighty breast
The crimson leaves, he scatters far and wide,
He bears them to a quiet place of rest,
Just where the summer in her sorrow died.
And with a calmer air and slower pace,
Forth from the forest o'er the plain he flits
To where proud autumn with a matchless grace,
Upon her purple throne in splendor sits.

Her flowing drapery in golden hue,
Veined with a thread of scarlet, deep and bright,
Is gathered o'er her bosom, damp with dew,
And heavy with the darkness and the night,
Her hands are full of red and dripping leaves,
And drooping asters with their sleepy eyes,
But ever as a coronal she weaves,
They fade and wither, and their beauty dies.

And with his haughty head low at her feet,
The night wind greets her with a grace more rare,
Wooing her gently with a music sweet—
His wings half folded, stirring the soft air,
Drawing her tenderly within his arms,
He steals the love-light from her shadowed eyes—
And growing bolder at her faint alarms
He soothes with kisses all her fears and sighs.

But soon the watchful stars grow dim and pale,
And the moon waneth—while a solemn hush
Lies on the patient trees, who never fail
To watch the waking of the young dawn's blush.
Forth from the hills glides with quiet steps—
A crimson glory trembling on her cheek—
A wavering splendor on her dewey lips—
Her blue eyes raised to Heaven, pure and meek.

Before her path the night wind steals away,
With reverent looks and stillness in his tread—
Hushing the rustle of his garments gray—
Twining his mantle o'er his half bowed head.
Gentle and quiet as a little child,
Who stands at prayers beside his mother's knee,
He winds his way across the mountains wild,
And in proud silence sinks into the sea!

ONE HUNDRED GIRLS IN A TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—In England the business of operating telegraph wires has been to a great extent placed in the hands of young ladies who find it a very agreeable employment.—The inland department of the Electric Telegraph Company in London, now employs one hundred young ladies, who receive and transmit the messages to all parts of the United Kingdom. The room in which they are engaged is lofty, spacious, and admirably lighted and ventilated. A number of long tables are placed across the room, upon which the instruments are placed, an attendant being seated opposite each one. There is one table for Liverpool, another for Manchester, a third for Birmingham and Glasgow, and so on for the whole of the chief towns. When not engaged at the instruments, the girls employ themselves with needlework or reading. The room is in charge of a matron. The compensation ranges from 10s. to 25s. ($2 50 to $6 25) per week. Ten hours constitute a day's work. A period of six weeks is sufficient to learn the whole process of telegraphing, but longer practice is required to impart efficiency and rapidity of execution. There is a kitchen in which the young ladies cook their dinners, and a servant to wait upon them, with a lavatory and other appliances for their comfort and convenience. The access to the room is by a staircase exclusively devoted to the ladies, and no person of the ruder sex is upon any account admitted into their department except upon a special order. To the honor of "the fair sex," the experiment has proved to a demonstration that the proverbial incapacity for women to keep a secret is a great untruth. Of the thousands of important and valuable secrets which must yearly come to the knowledge of these young ladies, not a single one has ever transpired. Many of the fair operatives are closely related to individuals distinguished in literature, science and art.

A BOILED DISH.—Almost every family has a a dinner as often as once a week, of what is popularly called a "boiled dish," and which, properly cooked, is one of the best dishes in the world; but all cooks do not know the best way to boil corn beef. The common method, in order to make it tender, being to put it in cold water, and let the beef and water come gradually to a boil. This certainly makes beef tender, but it also extracts all the strength and juice.

A better way is to wait till the water boils before putting in the beef; it will then be equally tender, and will retain its strengthening and juicy properties. Many housekeepers suppose that putting meat in hot water inevitably renders it hard and tough; and so it will, if the water is only hot; but if it boils, the effect will be the reverse. Just as putting a discolored table cloth in hot water will set the stains; but put in boiling water, and it takes them clean out. The same rule applies to all boiled meats.

Hams, after boiling four or five hours, should be taken out, the skins taken off, and cracker or bread crumbs grated over them, and then bake in a brisk oven for one hour. A leg of mutton can be treated successfully in the same way, only it does not require to be boiled so long. Of course, the boiling process should be gentle.—Mrs. Croley.

THE USE OF TOMATOES.—Among other things that have assumed to me the form of facts, one is that as feed for stock, and especially for milk cows, there is no vegetable superior to the tomato. The evidence of this was manifested during the past fall. Having in my garden a surplus of these, I resolved to try their efficacy as feed, and accordingly gave them to my cow, (the only kind of animal I had to feed them to,) and found that they not only caused her to give a good supply, but a rich quality of milk. They were fed in all their various conditions, from the green to the ripe state, and many of them after they had been frozen. The results did not seem to be changed by the condition in which they were fed. Not having the proper facilities, therefore I did not cook them, though I believe their value would be much improved thereby.—W. C. Earl, in the Ohio Farmer.

FRENCH PANCAKES.—Take six eggs, separate the yolks from the whites; beat the whites on a dinner plate to a snow; beat four yolks with two tablespoonfuls of sugar, two of flour, and a teaspoonful of cream; add a little salt and a very little carbonate of soda; put in the whites of the eggs and mix gently. Put one ounce of butter in a frying pan; when hot, pour in the whole pancake. Hold the pan a good distance from the fire for fifteen minutes; hold before the fire to brown on the top. Dish on a napkin, Put any kind of preserved fruit over it.—Serve hot.

TO RESTORE CRACKED IVORY.—The beautiful little ornaments of ivory very often become cracked from standing in a warm room. If a suds be made of warm water and Castile soap, and applied to the cracks with a camel's hair brush, after the brush has passed over them several times, gradually draw together and the crack disappear. Do not wipe off all the moisture, but merely press it with a soft rag until the surface is smooth and dry.

LEMON PIE.—Make nice paste, and lay into two medium sized plates; then prepare the following mixture: To the juice and grated rind of one lemon, made very sweet with white sugar, add three well beaten eggs, and a piece of butter half the size of an egg, melted. Stir these ingredients together, then add a pint of rich milk, or thin cream, stirring very fast. Fill the plates and bake immediately.

SOUTH AND NORTH:
OR,
Impressions Received During a Trip to Cuba and the South.
BY JOHN S. C. ABBOTT.
1 vol., 12mo, 352 pages. Price $1.
VOICE OF THE PRESS.

From the New York Independent.

THE VERY BEST BOOK ON SLAVERY YET ISSUED. Sound, judicious, kind, Christian, and most timely and faithful. * * * The author rehearses in a graphic way the measures of violence which "SOUTHERN AGGRESSION" has of late so systematically pursued; and, while condemning the crazy zeal of John Brown, he shows that this heroic self-denial for the oppressed puts to shame the coward fury of the South for oppression. Yet the tone of the book, while candid, frank and manly, is always kind and gentlemanly;

NOT SECTIONAL, BUT FRATERNAL; not partisan but Christian. He points the South to the simple remedy for existing evils, by substituting wages for the lash, free labor for coerced toil.

From the New York Tribune.

Its animated descriptions, and the frankness and cordiality of its tone are adapted to give it a favorable reception, even with readers who differ most widely from him in opinion. * * * The topics to which this volume is devoted, and the spirit in which they are discussed, though they may arouse a tempest of opposition from those who regard silence as the only guaranty of safety, will secure it a wider circulation among the Friends of Freedom throughout the country.

From the Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy.

It is a contemptible Abolition production, written in a very readable style, and well calculated to taint the minds of the young.

From the Detroit Christain Herald,

It furnishes valuable information on the questions now agitating our country.

From the Hartford Evening Press.

His impressions are such as would be derived by any honest fair-minded Northern man. It is warm, direct, eloquent.

From the New York Observer.

The book is intensely and avowedly abolition.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN.

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties [Tonic and Diuretic] which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into disrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in Cases of one and two dozen each, and sold throughout the world by Druggists, Grocers, &c.

The entire disease is often arrested at once, and in all cases the violence of the attack is moderated, the disease shortened, and rendered less dangerous.

Coughs and Colds, which are of such frequent occurrence, and which often lay the foundation of diseased lungs, bronchitis and consumption, may be at once cured by the Fever and Cough Pills.

In all chronic diseases, such as Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach, Constipation, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Debility, and Irregularities, old Headaches, Sore or Weak Eyes, Catarrh, Salt Rheum, and other old eruptions, the case has specifics whose proper application will afford a cure in almost every instance.—Often the cure of a single chronic disease, such as Dyspepsia, Piles or Catarrh, Headache or female Weakness, has more than paid for the case ten times over.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, and beautiful and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

New York, Jan. 3, 1858.

MESSRS O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am, Yours Respectfully,
HENRY JENKINS,
Cor. Columbus and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it.

Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine street.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON March 27—9 P. M.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward presented a petition in favor of the Homestead Bill, from citizens of N. Y.

Mr. Brown presented a resolution of the Mississippi Legislature, asking for a grant of land to aid in the construction of the Gulf and Ship Island R. R.

Mr. Slidell introduced a bill giving consent to the levying of tonnage duties by the States bordering on the Mississippi river, for the improvement thereof.

Mr. Doolittle presented a memorial in favor of a bankrupt law.

Mr. Johnson, of Tenn., rose to a personal explanation. He had seen in the N. Y. Herald a report of a speech made by the Senator from New York, Mr. Clark, at Dover, on the 9th inst., in which reference had been made to his State and himself. The extract was read by the Clerk, in which it was stated by Mr. Clark that Tennessee had had too little industry or enterprise to develope her mines of copper, &c.; and further in a conversation, he (Clark) had with him, (Johnson) he had made some admission relative to the insecurity of slave property at the South.

Mr. Johnson asked if this was a correct report?

Mr. Clark positively declined to give any explanation in the Senate.

Mr. Johnson would then assume that the report was correct, and answer it accordingly. If the Senator had made himself familiar with the facts in relation to mining in Tennessee, then he had stated what he knew to be untrue; and if he had not made himself conversant with the facts, then he spoke of something he knew nothing about. He then drew a comparison between the relative productiveness of Tennessee and New Hampshire, making deductions favorable to the former. As to the alleged conversation, he had never used the language attributed to him.

The further consideration of the bill was postponed for two weeks, and the House went into Committee of the Whole, on the state of the Union on the Army bill.

Mr. Bottler moved to increase the appropriation for the National Armories to $400,000. After a debate, without taking the question, the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House concurred in the Senate amendments to the bill for fulfilling the treaty stipulations with the Indians of Oregon and Washington.

Mr. Briggs presented petitions from N. Y., numerously signed, praying for the passage of a bankrupt law.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the bill to provide for the safety of passengers in boats propelled wholly or in part by steam.

Mr. Washburne, of Ill., urged the importance of the passage of this bill. No remonstrance against it had come from the West, New England or the South, and there was none from anywhere, except, perhaps, particular localities. This bill proposed to subject ferry, tug and freight boats to examination by a local Board of Inspectors, bringing them within the provisions of the law of '52.

The propriety of this is obvious, as some most terrible accidents have happened on ferry boats. The provisions of the same statutes extended to sea-going steamers, limiting the passengers to a reasonable extent, and requiring the vessels to be examined by the local authorities, from time to time, in order that the public may know if they are sea-worthy, or mere worm-eaten, rotten hulks, which the cupidity of the proprietors have put on their lines, under false names, calculated to deceive. The bill proposes no ocean steamers running more than 400 miles shall carry not exceeding one passenger for every 3 1-2 tons. According to this limit, the steamer Augusta can carry 870, the Arago 640, the North Star 530, and the Star of the West 530 passengers, exclusive of the crew.

Interested men from N. Y., however, say that if such a provision be adopted their trade would be broken down, but he would ask whether, in view of all the circumstances, the limit was not sufficiently liberal. The bill also provides for a system of lights, following the example of France and England, and four new boards of Inspectors, one each at Memphis, Oregon City, Paducah and Galena. The entire additional cost to the Government, as compared with the present law, would not exceed $237 per annum. Mr. Taylor alluded to a substitute he has prepared, providing that the insurance shall be vitiated by a failure to comply with the requirements of the present law, and for the prosecution of the master, enginner, pilot, or any other officer of any vessel on which life is destroyed by fire, explosion, or at the wheel, said officer not to be again employed on any steam vessel until a verdict is rendered that he is absolutely free from blame.—A debate followed on the merits of the bill.

Mr. Clark said that when the proper time arrived, he would take occasion to state what he did say in his speech, and when he did he would say nothing in disparagement of Tennessee, nor dispute the fact that she made more horses, asses and mules than New Hampshire

The bill to increase and regulate the pay of the Navy was considered.

Mr. Fessenden offered a substitute, mainly giving lower salaries, but increasidg some of those of the lower grades.

Mr. Crittenden offered an amendment to the original bill, to increase the pay of midshipmen. Agreed to.

Mr. Slidell offered an amendment that no vacancies in Chaplaincy shall be filled hereafter. Lost. Yeas 15, nays 23.

PORTLAND, March 27—9 P. M.

Lord Elgin had gone to Paris on public business in connection with his mission to China. He was expected to start for China in about a fortnight or three weeks

A report was current that Lord Taunton, formerly Mr. Labouchere, would probably succeed Lord Elgin, as Postmaster General.

FRANCE.—The Paris Siecle had received a warning for an alleged outrage against religion. The Siecle praised and endorsed a work in which certain dogmas of the Catholic and Jewish creeds were set down as shams.

The reply of the Holy See to the last proposals of France, had reached Paris.—The Pope declines the proposition to confine within an exclusive political compass, a question, which, as it concerns the integrity of the Patrimony of St. Peter, is intimately bound up with the independence of the Church, although decidedly tregreting the proposition to create a Vicarage of the Romagna in favor of a foreign Sovereign. His Holiness shows himself disposed to enter into the path of reform, on condition that the integrity of the States of the Church is guaranteed.

A Paris correspondent asserts that the foreign relations of France were silently undergoing a great change, and that Austrian influences were in the ascendant.

Proclamations by the Governor of Savoy were posted up in all the parishes in that country, notifying that the inhabitants will soon be called upon to vote upon the question of the maintainance of the union with Sardinia or annexation to France, according to the form prescribed by Parliament.

The London Telegraph positively affirms that an oral and confidential request had been made to England to join with Prussia and Russia in protesting against the alienation of Savoy from Sardinia. It was stated that England supports the demand of Sardinia to ascertain the wishes of the people of Savoy and Nice by universal suffrage.

ITALY.—M. Thouvenal's reply to Cavour's despatches of the 1st and 3d of March, had reached Turin. Thouvenal points out the essential difference which exists between the question of the annexation of Tuscany to Piedmont and that of Savoy to France, and says that the principal difficulty which opposes the first is to obtain its recognition by Europe, which has guaranteed the possession of Tuscany to the dynasty of Lorraine; in the latter this difficulty appears in the presence of the arrangements between France and Sardinia relative to the spontaneous cession of Savoy; consequently, the Emperor requests the regulation of the question of Savoy by simple cession, to be settled by mutual consent, and without having recourse to universal suffrage.

M. Thouvenal thinks that to become acquainted with the wish of the country, it would suffice to consult the Municipalities of Savoy.

As regards the annexation of Tuscany, M. Thouvenal repeats that France could not follow Piedmont in such a perilous course, and that if Victor Emanuel accepted the annexation of Tuscany, he would necessarily remain exposed to the risks of such a policy without being able to reckon on the support of France.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times gives a report that Bulls of excommunication against Victor Emanuel were ready to be launched from Rome the moment the election in the Central Italian States was decided.

The latest voting on the question of annexation to Sardinia, took place on the 11th and 12th in the various States.

Immense numbers of people assembled in all the towns, and much enthusiasm and confidence was evinced. Admirable order was maintained.

The army of Rome had been increased to 20,000 men.

AUSTRIA.—It is stated that Austria, while declaring her intention to remain neutral in regard to the Savoy question, had assurred Prussia that in the event of the Rhine frontiers ever being menaced, she would immediately unite with Prussia for the protection of the German Territory.

The Prussian Chamber of Deputies had unanimously adopted a bill which guarantees the Press against having its concessions withdrawn by administrative proceedings.

SPAIN AND MOROCCO.—Later advices from Tangier state that the Moors were evincing a fierce spirit of resistance, and preparations were being made for a strong defence of that town.

TURKEY.—A Constantinople despatch says that two of the points of negotiation now pending for the conclusion of a treaty of alliance between England France and the Porte were a revision of the capitulation and the right of armed intervention in the Principalities and Servia.

The Times published a letter from Naples which stated that the recent arrests there have been on a scale, which even the late King would not have attempted. Among those arrested are persons of moderate views; many are heads of families and engaged in business—for such, the order to quit the country, is absolutely ruin. Dismay and terror prevailed among all classes. The government had been led to its arbitrary acts by its apprehensions of a political climax from the elections in Central Italy. It is admitted that the exhibition of the national colors would be the cause of an outbreak, and the government therefore thought it would be a wise thing to get rid of all those considered likely to exercise any influence in such a movement.

Six new vessels of war have been ordered to be built at the Chatham dock yard, with an aggregate tonnage of 20,000 tons, and 207 guns.

Communication is complete between Alexandria and Kurachee by the sub-marine cable.

Tetuan, March 12.—The second campaign has been gloriously commenced. On Sunday last numerous tribes, including the Kabyles of Melilla, attacked the encampment at Tetuan, and were repulsed; the Moorish positions taken, and the Moors pursued half a league. Their loss is considerable.

Senate went into Committee of the Whole on the general file. Senator Hutchinson in the Chair. After considering a large number of bills, the Committee rose and reported to the Senate. A large number of bills were ordered to a third reading.

Senator Simpson moved that the Joint Committee of Investigation be requested to report to-morrow.

Senator Hutchinson moved that the vote postponing the consideration of the resolutions in regard to the slave trade until Saturday be reconsidered, pending which the Senate adjourned at 7 P. M.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the bill to redispose of the Northwestern land grant, vesting the title conditionally in the Madison, Portage and Lake Superior R. R. Co.

Mr. Cobb in the chair.

On motion of Mr. Whittlesey the bill was amended so as to provide that the line of the road shall touch at Hudson instead of Prescott. The bill was further amended by giving the portion of the line between Columbus and Portage to the Milwaukee, Watertown and Baraboo Valley Co., instead of the Wisconsin Central Co.

On motion of Mr. Dockney all after the enacting clause was struck from the bill, and a substitute inserted to restore the lands to the U. S. Government, with the request that they be given to actual settlers in limited quantities.

The Committee rose and the House adjourned till 3 o'clock p. m.

P. M. Session.—The speaker read a communication from Wm. Welch, Esq., asking the hall in the evening of the 29th to read the speech of Webster in reply to Hayne.

The afternoon was spent in discussion of the bill to redispose of the R R. Land Grants, which were finally both indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Elmore introduced a bill to amend chap. 18, R. S., of the assessment and collection of taxes.

Adjourned to 7 1-2 p. m.

Later from Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, March 27—9 P. M.

The prize steamers Miramon and Marquese, and the sloop of war Preble are all anchored opposite the city. The Preble brings 120 prisoners, among whom are Com. Morin and his two sons. The prize steamers bring 60 prisoners. The prisoners from the Marquese were taken to the Parish prison by the U. S. Marshal. Their trial has been postponed.

The Mexican mails, of the 15th, by the schooner Virginia Antoinette, are at hand.—The Military Conference agreed upon the terms of an armistice, but the Juarez gov. disapproved of them because they did not sufficiently guarantee the Constitution of 1857, which is the cardinal principle of said government.

After three meetings the conference was dissolved, and the garrison re-opened fire on the morning of the 15th, which was quickly returned from Miramon's battery. Two shells bursted in the palace.

The French fleet was constantly communicating with Miramon, contrary to Juarez.

From Havana.

NEW YORK, March 27—9 P. M.

The steamer Star of the West, from New Orleans via Havana, 23d, arrived this evening. She brought $75,000 in specie from New Orleans.

The health of Havana was good.

Considerable excitement existed concerning the capture of Moran's steamers, which was viewed as an outrage.

Sugars brisk at 8 3 4a9 reals; stock 115,000 boxes. Freights improved. Exchange on London 14 premium, on New York 3a 3 4 per cent.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, March 27—9 P. M.

The government has not yet received sufficient intelligence to enable it to judge intelligently on the merits of the recent affairs in the Gulf and hence the delay in answering Senator Hale's call upon the President for information. The recently published statements that the government will call upon Spain for explanation as to the fitting out of the Miramon steamers at Havana is not well founded, there being no official data to show that Spain is implicated with Miramon or which would justify such a course on the part of the administration, even if there were no other reasons why such explanations should not be demanded.

Accounts continue to be received from the South that the army of the Knights of the Circle is on the eve of leaving for Mexico, but up to the latest accounts from Vera Cruz no invitation had been extended them.

There is an unusually large number of strangers in the city, including many politicians from various quarters of the Union.

Government bonds to the amount of $100,000 were issued to-day by the government, for the benefit of the Wyandotte Indians of Kansas, through the exertions of Judge Williams of that Territory.

Philadelphia Matters.

PHILADELPHIA, March 27.—9 P. M.

In the Supreme Court, this morning, Mr. Harding applied for an attachment against those members of the Pittsburg city council who refused to obey the order of the court, in reference to the railroad subscriptions.—The writ was made returnable on the 1st Tuesday after the 1st Monday in May.

A young negro named Moses Horner was brought here last evening from Harrisburg on the charge of being a fugitive slave. He is claimed by Chas. T. Butler, of Va. The case was before the U. S. District Court, Judge Cadwallader, this morning, but at the request of the fugitive's counsel it was postponed until this P. M. Considerable excitement exists among the abolitionists in regard to the matter.

At the hearing of the fugitive slave case this P. M., Geo H. Earl, counsel for the prisoner, objected to the transcript of the proceedings of the Jefferson County court, in it the name of the prisoner being spelled in various ways, and there being numerous alterations and erasures. Mr. Benjamin A. Brewster, counsel for owner, produced evidence proving the identity of the slave, after which the hearing adjourned till morning.

MONETARY.

TUESDAY P. M., March 27, 1860.

The money market remains close, both for Currency and Exchange. The latter is firm at previous rates, buying at 1⅞ and selling at 2 ₩ cent premium for sight drafts.

We have the following by telegraph from New York to-day:

STOCKS—Dull, heavy and generally lower; Chi & R I 65⅜; C & T 24½; Gal & Chi 66¾; M S 15; Erie 10; C & O 58; N Y C 74½; Pac Mail 89¾; M S 2 bonds 38⅜.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY P. M., March 27, 1860.

Receipts by Railroad for the 24 hours ending noon to-day include:

Flour, bbls	1,228
Wheat, bus	3,947
Barley, bus	325
Rye, bus	195
Highwines, bbls	50
Hides, No	144
Butter, lbs	550

We have to note a more active flour market to-day, holders finally yielding to the pressure of continued dullness in breadstuffs at the East, and conceding a decline of about 25c from the prices asked some days ago. There were sales of some 1,200 bbls at $4,60 for good country, and $4,75@5 for fair to prime city extras, free on board, the present week.

The market for wheat was dull, but not lower, and indeed the tendency on 'Change appeared to be toward more firmness, one buyer offering 99c for No. 1 in store without being able to purchase any considerable amount. The sales include 1,500 bus of this quality, new receipts, deliverable in store all next week at $1. And here it is proper to explain the distinction between "old receipts" and "new receipts." The former includes all wheat received before the 1st of April in store, and is subject to 3c storage; all received after that date comes under the latter heading and is subject to 1c less storage.

There was nothing of any consequence done in coarse grains. We continue to quote Oats at 30c; Corn 50c; Barley 60@65c; Rye 75@78c; Grass Seed firm at $2,60@2,75 for ordinary to good Timothy.

It will be seen by reference to our Marine Column that the hopes of an early opening of the Straits were not well founded.

BREADSTUFFS AT TORONTO.—The Toronto Leader reports 515,000 bushels of grain, nearly all wheat, and 50,000 bbls of flour, in store there at the present time.

CHICAGO MARKET, MARCH 26TH.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago yesterday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	1,502
Wheat, bus	2,695
Corn, bus	28,830
Oats, bus	4,551
Barley, bus	923
Rye, bus	141

The Press & Tribune reports the stock of breadstuffs at Chicago, as follows:

	March 24, 1860.	March 25, 1859.
Flour, bbls	22,379	55,402
Wheat, bus	461,748	550,236
Corn, bus	1,055,794	72,810
Oats, bus	129,659	125,793
Rye, bus	7,668	172
Barleo, bus	15,411	64,930
Total Grain, bus	1,500,269	810,985

The inquiry for flour to-day was very limited and the market was dull and heavy, with limited transactions at 4,37½@5 for low grade to choice spring extra. The wheat market was very quiet. The only demand that existed was to fill orders from St. Louis, and these being satisfied, it closed dull and weak, the sales being limited, at 99c for new receipts No. 2 in Store, and $1,04 f. o. b. for a round lot of 2,000 bushels. As will be seen from our St. Louis dispatches the wheat market there declined 3@5 to-day. This will probably put a stop to shipments from this port to St Louis for a time at least. The Corn market to-day again declined ½c, the sales being liberal at the decline—ranging from 43@43½c for new receipts No. 1; 41@41½c for old receipts No. 1; 40½@41c for new receipts No. 2, and 40c for new receipts rejected. There were also two boat loads of corn sold—one of prime river to arrive from Havana at 44c afloat, and the other of good canal at 43c afloat. Oats were dull and ½@1c lower—sales being made at 35@36c on track. Rye was in good demand at 85c. Barley continues in fair demand, and the limited receipts keep the market firm. The sales to-day were at 75c for choice on track, and 70c for No. 1 delivered. Choice timothy seed is still in active request, and firm at $2,90@3,02½, and common to fair at $2,70@2,50. NEW YORK DRY GOODS TRADE.—The Courier & Enquirer of Saturday says:

Trade in Dry Goods wears a decidedly improved aspect. The whole character of the market appears to have changed for the better. There is a better tone, prices are firmer, and business more active. The shipments South are beyond all precedent. The difficulty of shipping by the Southern steamers are so formidable that the carmen with goods, taking their "turns" at the wharf, are obliged to detach their horses at nightfall, and leave their carts "in line" until the next day! Thus, although a great many Southern small dealers are purchasing their goods at Richmond, Charleston, Savannah, Mobile, &c., their goods come from New York, and the patriotic retailers are paying a round profit to local jobbers, who have but little competition, instead of getting their goods at about the cost of importation or production. This turn of affairs may leave second class jobbers a little dull with us, but cannot diminish the quantity of goods taken out of this market.

The West is very well represented in trade circles, better than for a year and a half past, and the State and City trade, now that the market for nearly all goods has become settled, are buying quite briskly.

SHIPMENT OF GRAIN—Yesterday, H. Eames shipped 1,009 sacks of oats, 675 sacks of wheat, and F. Bergthol 300, for St. Louis, by the steamer Canada. Freight to St. Louis on Oats, 12½; wheat 20 cents per bushel. She found the lake impassable, but a fair prospect of a clear passage in a few days.—La Crosse Republican, of yesterday.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

FAST TIME.—In the Railroad Convention in Louisville, on Wednesday, a letter was read from ERASTUS CORNING. He expresses a desire to accommodate the Southern roads as far as possible, but he says the public demand fast time, and we must make it. The Southern and Ohio lines opposed this at first, but some of the latter now admit that it is necessary, in order to secure a share of the Southern travel. Fast time will, therefore, be made between the East and West.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT FREIGHTING IMPROVEMENT.—We learn from the Detroit Tribune that the Great Western Railway Company have decided to build two large steamers to run between their depot in Windsor and the various depots on the Detroit side, for the purpose of carrying railway cars and their contents intact. By this arrangement the annoyance of unloading on one side and again reloading on the other will be avoided. The cars from one side will be brought alongside of those intended for the reception of the freight, which will thus have to be handled but once. The steamers will be something like the Grand Trunk Company's ferry Huron, and will carry fifteen cars each.

The managers of the Great Western deserve great credit for this projected improvement.

BROAD GUAGE FROM DETROIT TO PORTLAND AND BOSTON.—We learn that it has been definitely settled that another rail is to be laid down on the Grand Trunk from Port Huron this city, making an uninterrupted broad guage from Portland here. This will be as was at first contemplated, and no other arrangement should ever have been thought of. Cars can then be loaded at Detroit with produce and taken without breaking bulk to Portland, or, under the new arrangement, to Boston. Cars loaded with goods for the West will not even have to be unloaded until they are landed here. This will not only remove a crying evil to which shippers have been subjected, but will relieve the Company of a great source of embarrassment. They have found the process of reshipment at St. Clair river much more troublesome and expensive than they bargained for.—Detroit Tribune.

BUSINESS OF THE GRAND TRUNK.—Some idea of the extent of the business on the Grand Trunk Railroad, may be derived from a statement of the fact that the number of 'box' and platform cars used thereon in transporting freight amounts to nearly six thousand. Placed in a line they would reach some twenty-five miles.

The Portland Company are now engaged in building two hundred new 'box' cars for the road.—Portland Argus.

MARINE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, P. M.

ARRIVAL OF THE LEVIATHAN—NO PROSPECT OF AN EARLY OPENING OF THE STRAITS.—The fine wrecking tug Leviathan, Capt. HART, arrived this afternoon, from Beaver Island, with the schooner Huntress in tow. The Huntress, it will be remembered, went ashore last fall, was subsequently got off, and wintered at Beaver Harbor. The Leviathan left here a week ago yesterday for North Manitou Island, to get off the sch. American Republic, but finding the latter completely imbedded in ice, proceeded to Beaver Island for the Huntress. Capt. HART reports the weather still excessively cold in that latitude, the mercury being ten degrees below zero all the time he was there. The Straits are frozen over as solid as any time during the winter, and he thinks there is no probability of their being open before the 15th of April at the earliest.

The propeller Cuyahoga, of the D. & M. Railway Line, cleared to-day for Grand Haven with another big load of provisions and flour for the Eastern markets.

THE LAKE AND OCEAN TRADE.—The Toronto Globe says a Canadian firm is prepared to load twenty vessels with timber and deals, could they be had of the proper size and equipment.

FROM SAGINAW, THUNDER BAY, &C.—The elegant steamer Forest Queen arrived at 2 o'clock to-day, being her first appearance at our dock this season. Capt. Robinson informs us that he ran through ten miles of soft ice above the Charities. He started to ascend Thunder Bay River, when he was suddenly delighted by the rural spectacle of cattle running across, whereupon he concluded not to go in, particularly as the ice was over a foot thick and had not yet broken up.

The Queen brought down 1,000 lbs fish from the Sauble. She has been beautifully painted and regarnished, and will of course continue a great favorite. She leaves Hutchins' dock for Saginaw, &c., to-morrow morning.

RIVER NEWS.—The steamer Metropolitan, of the Northern Line, arrived at our levee this morning from St. Louis. She brought up a large quantity of freight.

The Chippewa Falls continues to make the trip between LaCrosse and Lake Pepin every other day.—This boat arrived from below at 10½ A. M., having brought up the eastern mails.

We learn that the ice on the Lake is still firm. The cool weather of last week having prevented the rapid thaw which was looked for.

The river continues to rise here slowly, but on the Rock Island rapids it is quite low, rendering navigation difficult, and tending to keep up the rates of freight.

From the Galena Advertiser we learn that the following gentlemen have been selected as the officers of the Galena boats in the Northern Line: Northern Light, Capt. P. Lodwick; Clerks, J. A. Dubois and C. K. Cooley. Grey Eagle, Capt. D. S. Harris; Clerks, John Pim and Dr. Glymphe. Key City, Capt. Jones Worden; Clerks, G. S. Pierce and H. H. Donnell. Itasca, Capt. D. Whitten; Clerks, George C. Bosh and Charles Mather. War Eagle, Capt. John B. Davis; Clerks, W. H. Cropper and William Watson.

The Canada, the John Bell, the Harmonia, and the Northerner, are on their way up from St. Louis.

The Milwaukee, from Galena, arrived at 3 o'clock this afternoon. She discharged a considerable amount of freight here, and some immigrant passengers.—Winona Republican of Saturday.

We learn from the Quebec Gazette that the ice on Lake St. Peter has given way, and that the Channel is completely clear. Opposite Three Rivers the St. Lawrence is as if it were summer; and in Quebec the steamers are plying every half hour to Point Levi.—Toronto Globe.

The Great Secret at Last Discovered!!
JUNIUS JUDSON,
PATENTEE AND MANUFACTURER OF JUDSON'S PATENT
GOVERNOR VALVES, FOR REGULATING THE MOTION OF STEAM ENGINES,
WARRANTED THE MOST PERFECT Governor of Steam Power in the world, and like all really great inventions, the most simple. Manufactured by Judson & Snow, at Rochester, N. Y., Selye Buildings, near R. R. Depot.
Shop Rights for sale.
CAUTION TO INFRINGERS.
Patented in the United States, Nov. 5th, 1859. Reissued, Jan. 4th, 1854. Second Patent, March 4th, 1851. Patented also in Great Britain and the Canadas, June 6th 1851.
This improvement consists in making regulating valves to open with a rapidly increasing ratio of opening, by increasing the width of the opening made in the valve—or by accelerating the opening motion of the ordinary valves in use—or by combining increased width of opening, with accelerated valve motion. My patent Valves and Governors are so arranged as to give the resistance to the piston's motion, (or retard of the engine,) the power to open the valve just the exact amount of aperture necessary to counteract the resistance; and from the aperture, by the addition of equal amounts of resistance, notwithstanding that the action of the governors continually decreasing in its effects.
Therefore reverse the action of valves combined with governors, as heretofore used. And as this effect can be produced by many different mechanical devices, (apparently not similar, but really indentical) with my improvement, by which infringers have imposed upon the public, I therefore caution and request all persons interested, to examine carefully all alleged improvements in valves or governors, to see if the application of this truth or principle, first discovered and applied by me, is not involved in their arrangements;—and thereby prevent a fraud upon the purchaser and inventor, both of which are at present much annoyed by their piratical depredations. Medical.

THE GREATEST MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.
MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.
He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.
Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.
One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.
Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.
Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.
Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.
One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.
Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.
Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.
One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.
Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.
Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.
Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.
A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.
ROXBURY, Mass.
DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.
In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.
NURSING SORE MOUTH
is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.
In the more advanced stages of CANKER
it extends to the stomach, causing
DYSPEPSIA
which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.
Your stomach is
RAW AND INFLAMED,
your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to CURE;
Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the PILES.
How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the MEDICAL DISCOVERY
you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.
WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!
THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.
This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.
What the Medical Profession Say.
"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.
"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D., Lowville, Ill.
"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.
"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Bust, Morristown, N. J.
"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Maris, Columbus, O.
"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."
"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.
"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.
"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.
"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.
Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,
IS NOW READY.
The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.
Make no Delay!
Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.
For sale, Wholesale and Retail, by HENRY FESS, Jr., Milwaukee, who is authorized to supply THE TRADE at New York prices.

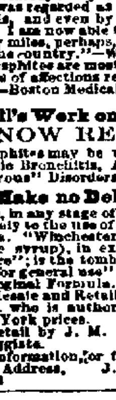
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.



THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries everything; but the disease is knawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues that have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.
Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains.—Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.
ARE YOU SICK?
Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the Headache, Heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because the stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken.—They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognised by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.
Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
